Reminder to all BWA Carvers!

- If you do a carving that is a copy from another carver's design you MUST acknowledge that carver.
- You may not sell copied designs (unless you have permission from the original carver).
- Failure to follow this advice may result in legal implications for which you, and not the BWA, will be liable.
- If you decide to enter a carving into a competition, which is from a copied design, you must always acknowledge the source.
- At exhibitions and demonstrations, please label your carvings with an acknowledgement to the original carver.

We've lost it !!

Has anyone been kindly looking after the club's scroll saw? Please can you let Stan and Lyn know if you have it.
